The Leadership Development Pin recognizes leaders/advisors and assistant leaders/advisors who have met all requirements for leadership and participate in additional training in areas that will increase their skills in working with girls.

Criteria:

- The candidate is a registered Girl Scout adult.
- The Candidate has completed one successful year in the position of troop/group leader, assistant leader, or group coordinator.
- The candidate has completed the appropriate basic position training, or has demonstrated position competence, or both.
- The candidate has participated in at least two meetings or events beyond the troop or group (geographic area, community, council).
- Has completed training in first aid or secured an adult resource person who has completed training.
- Has completed troop camp certification or secured an adult resource person who has completed training. This requirement may be eliminated if the troop is not involved in outdoor activities.

Additional Recognition

After the Leadership Development Pin is earned then additional recognition is awarded for training that helps improve skills for working with girls. For every ten hours of training a green leaf is awarded. After five leaves are earned they are replaced with a silver leaf. When five silver leaves are earned they are replaced by a gold leaf.
