Girls invited to Summer Fun day camp in the Quad Cities

DAVENPORT, Iowa – A full week of day camp fun is being offered for girls in grades K-5 next week in the Quad Cities.

The Summer Fun program offered by Girls Scouts of Eastern Iowa & Western Illinois and funded by the Riverboat Development Authority will be from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. daily from Monday, June 29 to Friday, July 3.

The day camp is at Truman School, 5506 N. Pine St., Davenport, and girls who attend the camp will participate in water games on July 3 and a field trip to the Scott County Jail and the Scott County Courthouse on July 2. Lunch is provided each day.

Cost is $10 per girl and grant assistance is available. Girls must register immediately by calling Kathleen McCormick at 309-788-0833 or 800-798-0833 or e-mail her at KathleenM@GSEIWI.org. Every girl who brings a friend to the day camp who is new to Girl Scouts wins a prize.

Girls should wear comfortable clothes and athletic shoes to the day camp and should bring a swimsuit and towel on Friday of that week for the water games activity.

Information about Girl Scouts of Eastern Iowa & Western Illinois is on the Web at <http://www.GSEIWI.org>.
