

Places to go for Outdoor Experience: Quad Cities Area

Loud Thunder

19408 Loud Thunder Rd

Illinois City, IL

(309) 795-1040

1621 acres of winding picturesque landscapes. Home to beautiful Lake George.

Illiniwek Forest Preserve Hampton IL

RR 84, Hampton, IL - (309) 496-2620

<http://www.ricfpd.org>

199 acres alongside the Mississippi River, an ideal place to get away for a fun filled weekend of outdoor recreation.

Black Hawk State Historical Site Rock Island IL

1510 46th Ave, Rock Island, IL - (309) 788-9536

A wooded steeply rolling 208 acre tract that borders the Rock River. Prehistoric Indians and nineteenth-century settlers made their home here, but the area is mostly identified with the Sauk nation and warrior-leader whose name it bears- Black Hawk.

Singing Bird Lodge – located in the NW section of the Park

Serves as an education center.

Quad City Botanical Center Rock Island IL

2525 4th Ave, Rock Island, IL - (309) 794-0991

<http://www.qcgardens.com>

Provides collections and exhibits that promote the beauty and enjoyment of plants.